Use of AI & ML Civil & Mechanical Engineering

The application of IT software, including Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Machine Learning (ML), has revolutionized the fields of Civil and Mechanical Engineering.

The integration of AI and ML in Civil and Mechanical Engineering enhances decision-making, efficiency, and sustainability, contributing to the advancement of these fields in the era of digital transformation.

Quick Fire Activity: People Skills

You're 20 minutes late for work because the train was late. It's the third time it's happened this week. What do you say to your boss?

You're in the middle of counting some stock when your boss asks you to go to the cafe to get coffee for her meeting. Usually her assistant would do it but he's off sick today. How do you respond?

An important report has to be sent off by 5 pm on Saturday. It's now 2 pm on and there's still a few more hours' work to do before the report will be ready to send. Next day is Sunday. What do you do?
